

Optional Study Guide for Module 3 of the DLM Required Test Administrator Training

Learning Objectives

- Understand the engagement activities and the questions that make up each test item
- Learn about both the teacher administered items and the computer administered items
- Learn about the various item items
- Understand how to administer the testlets
- Learn what administration practices are allowed and what administration practices must be avoided

Study Questions and Notetaking

- What are the differences between teacher administered testlets and computer administered testlets?

- What is the purpose and format of the engagement activities?
 - ELA

 - Math

- What are the five types of test items?

- How do students login to KITE and submit testlets?

- What are allowable test administration practices and those that must be avoided?

